Your guide to the world of Sonic The Comic (STC) & Sega.
Presented by your host, Megadroid.

ZONE

HEY BOOMERS!

Now that you have the chance to pin down the happening hedgehog, are you wearing your super Sonic Badge? Okay, as well as a FREE gift, there's a wheelie great Amy & Tekno Pin-Up, a Robotnik Graphic Zone, and here's a taste of what else awaits...

There's another double dose of Sonic stories; Doctor Robotnik's new powers are beginning to baffle our blue hero in Robotnik Reigns Supreme and Show of Strength.

STC flashbacks to Tails' early life when he suffered the bullying ways of a feather-brain in First Flight, plus Amy and Shortfuse get down to some superfine action with a sneaky Duck in Yesterday's Heroes.

Talking of foul play, I've been left to organise the fifth birthday celebrations for STC 130 (more info next issue). I think I deserve a mega pat on the bodywork for putting up with those waddling humes, don't you?

Megadroid

SEGA WORLD MEGA APOLOGY!

Boomers who responded to the Free Entry voucher offers in STC119, 121 & 122, discovered that they were required to pay for use of amusement machines and rides once inside. This information should have been made much clearer.

Further to this, Segaworld introduced a free entry policy to all (worth £3.00) from January 1988. Therefore, in addition to entry, those producing STC vouchers, should have been offered free rides.

Because Segaworld regret that many STC readers have been sorely disappointed, they have extended the STC offer up to the end of May 1988. The vouchers can be exchanged for a free ride on "Ghost Hunt" (worth £3.00), or two tokens for use on any of the games machines.

Please do not hesitate to contact Segaworld direct regarding any further queries on 0171 734 7777.

STC World has 15 machines to everyone who took the trouble to phone in or write, but realisation, Sonic has been carried out a token attack on the Segaworld homes responsible.
